

NUMERICAL INDEX OF APPLICABLE ADMINISTRATIVE PUBLICATIONS

1. This index is a users' reference document and catalog of standard publications. Available electronic versions of publications are listed at the NGB Publications & Forms web site <http://www.ngbpdc.ngb.army.mil/>. The Air National Guard (ANG) mirrors AF Policy Directives (AFPD) and Instructions (AFI) in format and purpose. Due to the nature of AFPDs as overarching policy and AFIs as broad USAF-wide guidance, all AFPDs and AFIs are applicable to the ANG unless stated as "not applicable" in their purpose paragraphs (indicated by @ in the AFIND 2) or "applicable only upon mobilization" (indicated by #). Departmental publications that only apply to the ANG and have a MAJCOM focus are being rewritten as ANGPDs or ANGI publications during their review cycle. ANG command publications that were designated as ANGRs were realigned to ANGPDs or ANGIs within their revision cycle. Air Force Occupational Safety and Health Standards (AFOSH) that relate to specific operations of field units are applicable to the Air National Guard.
2. Multi-command publications are listed in italics after the title.
3. In order to make the ANG Index more user friendly, all ANG publications will be listed in numerical order, regardless of the fact that they may be ANG instructions, multi-command pubs, old series, ANGRs, or modifying publications [NGR (AF)], or joint ANG/ARNG publications.
4. Requirements/Requisitions. Requirements for NGB publications are established through NGB-SDP, Camp Keyes, Augusta, ME 04333-0032. Requisitions for NGB paper publications should be submitted to NGB-SDP, Building 34, Camp Keyes, Augusta, ME 04333-0032.
5. The Chief, ANG (NGB/CF), will task the National Guard Bureau (NGB) or ANG OPR to review all departmental and designated MAJCOM publications for content and applicability. Final approval authority of ANG coordination of MAJCOM and Air Force publications is the responsibility of the chief of that office. Address applicability inquiries to: ANG/AQ, DO, FM, HC, LG, SC, or XP, ATTENTION: Work Flow Manager, 1411 Jefferson Davis Highway, Arlington VA 22202. ANG/CE, DP, LG, and SG, ATTENTION: Work Flow Manager, 3500 Fetchet Avenue, Andrews AFB MD 20762-5157.
6. Interim Changes (IC) are no longer an authorized method of changing a basic publication within the ANG. The only methods authorized to make changes to a basic publication are a revision or supplement. All States Letters (ASL) may announce a new or changed policy but may not direct a change be made in the basic publication. Letters should be filed with but not posted to the basic publication.
7. Ordering Air Force Major Command (MAJCOM) Publications. Contact your local ETS organizational account representative. Electronic Air Force MAJCOM products (excluding ANG) available via the Master Catalog at <http://afpubs.hq.af.mil>. ETS organizational account representatives will be authorized to procure physical products from Air Force MAJCOMs.
